Welcome! If you're visiting Edinburgh, or live here and are visiting St. Pat's, you are most welcome. We are delighted you have joined us. Please stay on afterwards for refreshments in the foyer.

SESQUICENTENARY CELEBRATIONS!

St. Patrick's parish community have been worshipping in this church for 150 years. This is a great achievement worthy of celebrating. To mark this milestone in our parish's history a whole series of events have been organised for later on in the year. Leaflets detailing the various dates and events are available in the foyer. Posters in the foyer give a short explanation of each of the events. It is hoped that friends and parishioners, past and present of St. Pat's will be able to participate in many of the events.

There should be something for everyone in the celebration programme!

Through prayer, liturgy, story, music, flowers, history and art, these celebrations should be a memorable occasion in the life of the parish. We will celebrate with the politicians, the local council, our neighbouring churches, the religious of the area and the wider archdiocese. Make sure you get the dates in your diary!

St. Patrick's has a proud history, so let us celebrate it well!

Tickets are now available for the Dinner Dance Ceilidh.

The Sesquicentenary Ball will be held in the MacDonald Hotel, Holyrood Road on Friday 24th November. As there are number restrictions, entry will be by ticket only. Tickets are only available from the office and are priced £55. Please make cheque payable to St. Patrick's Edinburgh. Give your name and contact details into the office and tickets will be sent to you by post. It will be a night to remember!

Justice & Peace Group will meet on Tuesday 29th August at 7pm in the memorial room. All welcome.

A Bereavement Befriending Study Day will be held at Gillis on Sat. 23rd Sept. from 10am to 1pm. Please see poster for more details.

Scottish Marriage Care

Trish Barry from Scottish Marriage Care will speak after 5pm Mass and 11am Mass about the work of FOCCUS and the training of facilitators.
